Discuss the following scenario on Integrity and answer to 2 questions.

The current unit in science is a really hard one because of all of the theory and You and your friend spent three hours studying together for the test, ready to give it your best effort. During the test, you notice that Robbie keeps moving her arm, which distracts you from concentrating. cheating! Disgusted, you return to your work and finish the test on time. The next day, the teacher hands back the test scores. You and your friend have each scored 90! Good job!

1. What do you say to Robbie? To your friend? To the teacher?
2. Do you accuse her of what you believe she was doing?
3. What action, if any, do you take?
4. If you are demonstrating integrity, what will you do?
